

POSITIVE PSYCHOLOGY IMPLEMENTATION AND A FOCUS ON PRODUCTIVITY

TASBO + Orange Frog

It has been observed for many years that highly positive teachers and school cultures are directly linked to achievement scores and long-term success of students. It is now also known that positivity training can have a direct impact on stress, productivity and team dynamics.

In school business the day-to-day stresses of budgeting, staffing, student data, new legislation, and more can affect your team, health and personal outlook. This training provides the support needed to create an optimistic culture with research based strategies that can immediately be implemented.

By prioritizing a deep understanding of positive psychology, you will find ways to grow both personally and professionally. No matter what your role is within your district, when you bring you best self to work, you are empowered to create a school culture of positivity and interconnected happiness. Start spreading the orange today!
